LOVE LETTER TO UUFCC

Unitarian Universalist Fellowship, Dearest Beloved,
How do I love thee, let me count the ways:

❖ I love how the door to the porch was fixed so I don't lock myself out of the building and have to climb through the window. We needn't recover embarrassing moments but truly, this was a big deal in the year past.

❖ I love how we hear children's voices in the halls and in this room. I even love how folks who can't hear well will speak loudly for all to hear during the offering.

❖ Just last week, I heard someone comment "Now that's a real choir." We have a real choir. Isn't that lovely?

❖ I love that people joke about the parking lot, calling it a labyrinth. At least, folks aren't complaining as much about not being able to park. I really love that.

❖ It pleases me when someone says, "Wow, the toilets work in the women's bathroom. Now, if we can only keep up with the need for more toilet paper."

❖ I love that when I am in the public, folks say, "Hey, I've been at your church. It's a real friendly place. People seem so kind and motivated to make a difference in the community."

❖ I love that one member says she joined because she noticed that when people left the building, they leave with a smile on their faces.

The programs and activities provided here in the past year include:

- An Auction event where folks shared a meal, built community and raised funds
- Meetings that prompted us to encourage the UUA to divest from Fossil Fuel investments
- Movies. There were more than 16 shown in the sanctuary.
- UUFCC internet radio had music, sermons and interviews that ran for 1,095 hours.
- We had the Peace Initiative Speaker series during Jan, Feb, and Mar last year and it's happening right now.
- The Book Group met 10 times.
- We organized ourselves to protest for a Domestic Partnership Registry and then, we were at the Justice Center to witness and celebrate same sex weddings when they became law in Florida on Jan. 6.
- We have had Meditation in this room on Thursday nights from 5:15 – 6pm for 52 weeks and a Buddhism discussion group for 14 weeks.
- There were approximately 10 art exhibit openings.
- There were 52 Discussion groups before the Sunday services and to date, 6 discussion groups on Saturdays before our afternoon service.
- Music Concerts, we held a dozen or so between last season and this one.
- We had a congregational read – The New Jim Crow by Michelle Alexander.
- There were 52 Sunday worship services and 7 Saturday services.

- The Sierra Club and Audubon Societies meet in this building every month.
 - The Tough Times Support Group has been meeting every Wednesday and NAMI, the National Association for Mental Illness support group began meeting here in the fall.
 - We had more than a dozen free Spanish classes here in the past year.
 - There were four “New to UU” Breakfast Gatherings where folks could eat and ask questions about what membership means here at UUFC. I hope you are beginning to grasp what it means by now.
 - The Recorder Group meets here on Saturdays and the Gulf Coast Acoustic Guitar Society meets here also.
 - There was a series of Fridays where people met to discuss Psychology of the Unconscious.
 - Climate Action Committee, Hospitality and Pastoral Care Group, The Mystical Discussion group, the Social Justice group, Long-range planning and the Grounds group, (Have you witnessed the transformation of the grounds???) These teams have met year round as well as the Board and Executive Board of Trustees.
 - We had a sew-in to provide fabric (reusable) bags for a local food bank, a Mystic Faire event last spring, a dozen potlucks after Sunday services and meetings to advocate and raise funds for the George Brown Mural project in downtown Punta Gorda.
 - There was a writing / storytelling group that met here for a while, a UU History 101 class, a “Knit Wit” display of knitted items with a discussion about the history of knitting and a Harry S. Truman one-man-show on one Sunday afternoon.
 - Patient Advocates met here. They want people to know you don’t have to go to doctor appointments or surgeries by yourself.
 - This last year, we hung a basket to raise funds for the Harry Chapin food bank where $1 of our money equals $6 worth of food. Did you know our second helping collections held once a month for the past 12 months raised over $7,000 for local charities? I am humbled by your generosity, UUFCC.
 - We made a couple of field trips to local gardens to learn more about how to grow our own food and started a compost pile on these grounds.
 - We had congregational meetings and an annual meeting so all friends and members would better understand the needs and challenges we face. One of those gatherings included a vote to make an offer on another property. Membership means you have a voice and a vote.
 - Reader’s Theater met here once a month. If you haven’t participated in this activity, you are missing out on thoughtful reflection and lots of laughter.
 - Some of us marched to say NO to the KXL pipeline and marched to raise awareness for troubling Climate Change patterns. We face the future together.
 - The Worship Associates met here more than once a month to carefully plan our opportunities to gather in a sacred manner- that is, in a way that says this place and this time is important to us.
 - I’ve been here on a Friday evening or two when people were singing Karaoke and then, participated in a moment of Serendipity. The talent in our UUFCC community goes mostly unnoticed. However, I heard the songs and am grateful.
 - Finally, beginning last spring, we laid out a labyrinth in three different locations - the beach in Englewood, Bayshore Park in Port Charlotte and in December, in this very room, to acknowledge the change of the seasons.
- Speaking of seasons, we’ve had seasons of joy where we have welcomed new members and seasons of loss where friends and members left us. I really hate that some of our loved ones died in 2014. Last year was a rough one, wasn’t it? However, I love how we comforted one another. I love that we are STILL comforting one another.
- I love the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Charlotte County -the past, the present and especially our future.

With much love and good regard,
Rev. Amy Kindred

Board President

Building Our Future: It's Up to YOU!

It is high season and our Annual Giving Campaign is just ending. Thanks to all of you who turned in the Yellow sheet with your offer of Time and Talent. I truly hope that you enjoyed that impressive new brochure and information packet from our Stewardship Team, as well! Hopefully, it helped guide you in thinking of what UUFCC means to you, explained how the funds you give provide the many programs you value and helped you decide how much you want, and can afford, to give to support UUFCC. It is NOT too late to have your questions answered if you still are wondering what to do. Just ask a Stewardship Team member, with the identifying tag.

We want everyone to turn in a pledge card and feel really good about sharing Time, Talent and Treasure. It is how we will build our future.

Our Congregational Informational Meeting 2/8/15: Focused on the Report from Stewardship Consultant, Bill Clontz- review of how we got here. Three priorities the Board is working on:

- A. Engaging our members, including Time & Talent Sheets (as well as Auction offerings! What a fun night!!)
- B. Moving forward to get the space we need: THE PLAN to manage our growth, including the second service (Jan. - March only) and the several options for additional space to be evaluated by the Long Range Planning Team. See Linda Levin if you want to be involved!
- C. The Stewardship Team who have been working very hard, as you have seen.

We have also established a new Building Maintenance Team, chaired by Bill Howat. This is our commitment to take care of the building and grounds no matter what we may do in the future. See Bill H. if you have skills and talents to help.

Proposed Amendments to UUFCC Bylaws have been posted on the website. Please review and send your comments to uufcc1@yahoo.com. The Board will review your comments, and if needed, we will set-up an informational/discussion meeting.

PLAN TO ATTEND Sunday 3/29/15 Noon UUFCC ANNUAL Meeting- this is where we review the year (and present a written Annual Report), examine and approve the proposed budget, approve Bylaw amendments and elect new officers and Trustees. Details will be mailed 3 weeks prior to this date. It is a good time to be at UUFCC.

Yours in faith,
MaryHolly

 Life is a series of transitions. How do we honor and recognize the past, keep one foot in the present moment and another a step ahead to the future? It's not easy but with an open heart, it is indeed possible.

 Our brains edit time in interesting ways, subject to many distortions. Time is a rubbery thing, stretching or shrinking in various circumstances, and influenced by aging, emotion, meditation, music, and most of all culture. But we're not entirely helpless against this. Join us for several practical tips on how to slow time enough to make the most of our days.

 The airline attendant says, "In the case of an emergency, place the air mask on yourself first. Then, place one on someone who needs your help such as your child." How does one balance the need to care for self and the necessity to help those who cannot help themselves? Does it require a change of perspective?

Membership Notes

Diane Allen-Harkins dallenharkins@gmail.com

The membership committee is asking for everyone's participation in our campaign to "Take a visitor under our wing". During this very busy winter season with so many new faces it is easy to miss a first time visitor but if everyone helps we can make sure that all are truly welcomed here at UUFCC.

We are asking everyone simply this: At a Saturday afternoon or a Sunday morning service, please look around for a new person in the room. Ask if they would like to sit with you. Show them where to find the coffee pot, social hall and restrooms. Offer to share your Hymnal or Order of service since we sometimes run out. That's it. It seems very simple if we all take a part, with very little effort we can help all of our visitors feel welcomed. Thank you for your support.

New to UU Orientation and Welcome Breakfast

Invitations have been sent to many newcomers and board members to attend the New to UU Breakfast on Saturday March 14, 2015 at 8:30am-11:00am in the Social Hall at UUFCC. We will share breakfast, meet many of the board members and others and learn some things about UU History and UUFCC, as well as have a great time. If you are new and have not received an invitation please contact Diane Allen-Harkins if you would like to attend. If you have received an invitation please remember to r.s.v.p by Sunday March 8, 2015 so we know how many people to expect.

Everyone who attends this orientation is welcome to sign the membership book and become a member at our Open Book Signing on Sunday April 5, 2015.

We are happy to make special arrangements for anyone who wishes to sign the membership book in private or who is unable to attend the service on Sunday April 5. Please contact Diane or Reverend Amy Kindred for details or if you have any questions or concerns.

Mandala Making

Every first Sunday of the month, the children remain in the worship service. On March 1, when the children gather for the "Story for All Ages", they will help the minister make a Mandala in honor of the earth. Projected on the screen, all will witness the artful endeavor.

Walk the Labyrinth – Saturday, March 21

What's a labyrinth? It's a path that leads you to a center and guides you back out again. These fascinating designs appear to have surfaced more than 4,000 years ago in the southern part of Europe. Walking a labyrinth in a meditative manner can be a powerful experience. To honor the changing of the seasons, we friends and members of UUFCC, like to honor the change by creating an illuminated labyrinth. The Spring Equinox occurs on Friday, March 20, 2015. However, we will build the labyrinth at Myakkahatchee Creek Environmental Park in North Port (6968 Reistertown Road) the next day. Construction begins at 6:30 pm. Come walk the labyrinth til 8:30 pm."

DO YOU LOVE TO READ? COME JOIN OUR BOOK CLUB

We gather on the last Wednesday of each month from 1:30 to 3pm to discuss a book (fiction or non-fiction) chosen by the group. Many of the books are “modern classics” which frequently are also considered the greatest book of a famous author. But sometimes we choose a book published recently that has impressed one or more of us as “great.” The discussions are lively and stick reasonably well to the subject (the book of the month!). On February 25th we gathered to discuss what is widely considered the greatest war novel ever written, All Quiet on the Western Front by Eric Remarque. We agreed that it is magnificently written. Moreover, the impression it leaves is that war destroys many who fight, even among those who survive it.

Books for future meetings are:

March – Guns of August by Barbara Tuchman

April – I, Claudius by Robert Graves

Concert

Julie Patchouli, award winning singer/songwriter and master guitarist Bruce Heckel will perform on Saturday, March 7th, 7:30 PM at the Fellowship. The duo light up the air with their sparkling acoustic sounds. They blend folk, pop, flamenco and jazz with other international rhythms and can instantly turn a bad day into a good one. All are welcomed to this event. Tickets are $12 and can be purchased at the door. For more information, call 315-427-4292.

Art on the Wall

Bruce Hecksel, artist and musician, will display his imaginative art during the month of March. Hecksel's works range from abstract to neo-impressionism. His personal style includes arranging guitars to form landscapes, the use of vibrant colors, thick textures, and black lines that evoke stain glass compositions. His work is symbolic, spiritual and musical.

The public is invited to the opening reception that will coincide with his concert (along with his wife, Julie Patchouli) on Saturday, March 7th, 7:30 PM.

Climate Action News....Jack Harkins

We're still sponsoring and encouraging members and friends to do weekly recycling and composting. Please ask if you have questions about what goes where: "Large Brown Bag" for dry recyclables: cardboard, paper, plastic, glass; "Yucky bucket" for non-meat foods, the rest would be unrecyclable and uncompostable and would go in regular trash (white plastic bag).

We're having our monthly planning meeting Tuesday, 3/17, at 5:30pm. All are welcome! Also, we're sponsoring our monthly vegetarian potluck (bring a dish to pass) on Saturday, March 28 after the Service, approximately, 6:00pm. Please join us!

We're excited to be participating in the local chapter of Citizens Climate Lobby (CCL). All are welcome! The monthly meeting will be held at at Coty Keller's house on March 10 at 6:00pm. See Jack Harkins if you want an address and/or directions. There will be a start up training workshop for new chapters on Saturday March 14 from 1:00pm -5:00pm at United Christ Church on Aquia Esta Dr. in Punta Gorda. For a new 2 minute video explaining CCL's "carbon fee and dividend" plan, go to this link, and see why we're so excited about this non-partisan group:

Recycling, Did You Know?

- One recycled aluminum can saves enough energy to power a television or computer for 3 hours or a 100-watt light bulb for 20 hours.
- A six-pack of recycled aluminum cans saves enough energy to drive a car 5 miles.
- Recycling one glass bottle saves enough energy to light a 100-watt light bulb for 4 hours.
- Recycling a one-gallon plastic milk jug will save enough energy to keep a 100-watt bulb burning for 11 hours.
- Recycling a one-foot high stack of newspapers saves enough electricity to heat a home for 17 hours.

News from Social Justice Committee

Second Helping in March

Peace Initiative Series - Samar Dahmash Jarrah will speak on Sunday, March 1, in the UUFCC sanctuary at 12:15 pm, following the noontime potluck luncheon. Her address is titled: "Should the US Push for a One State Solution in the Holy Land?" This is the third in this year's Peace Initiative Speakers Series. Samar, a Kuwait-born Palestinian-American speaker, journalist, and educator, has traveled extensively throughout North America, Europe, and the Middle East and has lived in Jordan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia, Egypt, and America. Her professional accomplishments include being a contributor to CNN World Report; news editor and reporter for Jordan Television; editor and reporter for Jordan Weekly; and a Political Science instructor at the University of South Florida in Tampa. She has been asked by many community organizations, churches, temples, and peace groups to speak about the Arab world, which has served as the inspiration for Arab Voices Speak to American Hearts, a first step in fostering direct dialogue between Americans and Arabs. Past speaking events include: Washington D.C.'s Arab-American Anti Discrimination Committee 25th Annual Conference Center; Al-Hewar Center; The Center for Arab Culture and Dialogue; Temple Sinai/ Sarasota FL; Venice Interfaith Community Association; Unitarian Universalist Congregations; and Islamic Society for North America, National Convention. Dahmash-Jarrah holds a Master of Arts degree in Political Science, a Bachelor of Arts in Middle East Studies, a Certificate of Merit and many Service Awards from the American University in Cairo.

The Cooper Street Recreational Center in Punta Gorda will be the recipient of the Second Helping collection on Sunday, March 8. For over half a century the CSRC has served as a community hub for many activities. Among these are classes after regular school hours to help children learn their subjects and complete their homework. The public park has playground equipment for children.

Voting Restoration Amendment A petition to amend the Florida Constitution to restore voting rights to former felons who have completed their sentences and are living crime-free lives is being circulated by Floridians for a Fair Democracy, the League of Woman Voters, the NAACP, the Florida Democratic Women's Clubs and other responsible organizations. Please consider signing a petition and distributing copies to family and friends. Copies of the form are available at the UUFCC from the Social Justice and Racial justice Committees.

Basic Talking Points

- In Florida over 1.5 million people are permanently denied the right to vote because of a prior felony conviction.
- Florida is one of only three states (FL, KY, IA) that has a lifetime ban on voting after a person is convicted of a felony.
- This amendment updates our criminal justice system to match the standards in other states, so that after a person convicted of a felony completes all terms of their sentence including parole or probation they earn their rights back.
- Americans believe in second chances and that people should be able to earn forgiveness by completing the terms of their sentence.
- Restoring a person's right to vote gives them an opportunity for redemption and a chance to be full members of their community.
- Studies by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement show that people returning from prison who can vote are less likely to commit crimes in the future.
- By helping people become responsible citizens, we create safer communities and save taxpayers money by keeping people from returning to prison.
- This amendment would not apply to those convicted of murder or sexual offenses, who would continue to be permanently barred from voting unless the Governor and Cabinet vote to restore their voting rights on a case by case basis.

Ubuntu Harmony Singing

Are you someone who loves to sing? Would you like to find a friendly, welcoming group of people to share your love of music? Have you wanted to sing but felt like your voice isn't quite good enough to sing in a group? All are welcome to come to Ubuntu singing. We'll sing music from around the world and from many traditions and styles. No experience is necessary. You don't need to have a "good singing voice", just a desire to sing. Ubuntu singing is singing the old way – learning aurally, or "by ear". In primitive cultures no one questions whether they can sing nor do they think about how well they or anyone else sings. For them, it's as natural and necessary as breathing. As a group, we'll do our best to create an environment which feels safe enough for someone who hasn't sung since grade school but interesting enough to tickle the fancy of even the most seasoned singer. The word, "Ubuntu" means "I am who I am because of my friendship with you". Ubuntu is an international network of groups who sing for the joy it brings. Come to UUFCC on April 4 from 9:30 am to noon to experience the joy!

We will be led by Tom Tyre. Tom's love of harmony singing began when he was a youngster attending church in coastal Georgia. Listening to the congregation sing harmonies cast a spell that led him to love and learn harmony singing. Tom has lived most of his life in the Appalachian Mountains of North Carolina where he is a songwriter and choral music composer and arranger. He is director of Ubuntu Franklin and Ubuntu Dillsboro and facilitates group singing sessions in the US and Canada. Tom enjoys collecting and teaching all types of songs and strives to inspire even the most timid singer to experience the joy and kinship that singing in harmony brings.

Alliance for Fair Food - Parade and Concert

The Alliance for Fair Food is the updated and enlarged Interfaith Alliance of Southwestern Florida and the Coalition of Immokalee Workers many of us are all well acquainted with. The effort and program has expanded and broadened into a national drive to improve the working conditions for farm laborers everywhere.

On Saturday, March 21, a Parade and Concert will be held in St. Petersburg with a focus to persuade Publix and Wendy's to join the other major corporations which have already come to support the struggle for fair food.

The parade will commence at noon in Barlett Park, 2000 7th St., and proceed to Vinoy Park, 701 Bayshore Dr. NE, in St. Petersburg, where a concert will be held featuring Grammy Award-winning and other nationally-known performers from 3 pm to 8:30 pm.

Interested UUs and friends here in Port Charlotte may wish to car pool to take part in this event. If so, please contact: Ted Zawistowski at ZawistowskiT@embarqmail.com or 941-625-3186. You may also sign up at the table in the back of the UUFCC sanctuary.
