of Charlotte County
A Place where Religion and Reason Meet

Greetings!

Finally! The shortest day of 2020 will be this Sunday. Now that is something to celebrate - the shortest day in the longest year! The pagans would burn fires all night long beseeching the year not to end. Let's not do that this year. 2020 has been one for the rear view mirror as far as I'm concerned. I play a gratitude game with a friend everyday and some of our gratitude this year has been as simple as "we don't have a hurricane" or "we don't have a wildfire" and sometimes we've been grateful for whipped cream. You can tell what 2020 has been like just from those statements.

I wish you all a safe, peaceful, and as joyous as possible, Winter Solstice.

If you get a chance, check out the convergence of Jupiter and Saturn to appear as one super star around the 21st. Here's some information about that.

peace to all - MJ

THE AUCTION IS NOW OPEN!

Obviously this years auction will be different and done virtually. It will happen over several months or more and include, hopefully, lots of services and things folks can use, especially baked goods, family dinners and the like. We hope to be able to have one bigger live Zoom auction later in the season that includes some bigger items and entertainment.

The auction is open - for donating and for bidding! We need you to donate. Considering the holidays, baked goods and meals might be particularly helpful. Can you help with gardening or cleaning up outside areas for returning snowbirds? Be creative with your talents. You have them, you know you do.

Here's all you need to do:

- (1) Login at www.uufcc.net
If you haven't logged in before or don't remember your log-in, there is a link to do so.
- (2) Click on MyStuff > Items
- (3) You should then see a link you could use to create a new item to donate.

PROCEDURES FOR ZOOM MEETINGS

Our philosophy at UUFCC is that zoom links that are posted on public media will require a waiting room for security reasons. Zoom links that are distributed locally via the Weekly Update or emails from the fellowship will contain embedded passwords. If you use the short 10 digit number to gain access, perhaps through a locally installed version of zoom, you will need to type in the password yourself. If you need a password, please contact either the office@uufcc.org or uufcccloribell@gmail.com

Privately scheduled meetings on people's personal zoom accounts are not under these guidelines so contact the person scheduling the meeting for any questions about those links.

UUFCC MEDITATION LABYRINTH

We are excited to announce that our UUFCC Meditation Labyrinth is open! You'll find it in the parking lot on the east end. Look for the orange cones. You'll find instructions in the information box at the entrance to the labyrinth, if you'd like to use them. There is a guided meditation for December, and we plan to change that every month.

This is intended for you to enjoy alone on your own time. Come and go as you please, and take as long as you'd like.

We hope this new labyrinth will be just one more tool to help you on your spiritual journey.

Rev. Dan

DONATING TO UUFCC and PLEDGES

We are working on coming up with some simple ways for our generous community to continue to financially support UUFCC and our community. We are equipped to handle donations through the phone app Venmo. Payments should be made to "UUFCC Offering". If you want your donation to apply to anything other than UUFCC Operations, such as the Minister's Discretionary Fund, please indicate so in the notes field.

Our mail address is: UUFCC, 1532 Forrest Nelson Blvd., Port Charlotte, FL 33952

COMMUNICATING WITH THE OFFICE

GOT A MATCH, FRIEND?

Ken Brennan had a match. He initiated the recent wonderfully successful UUFCC Matching Campaign for the Social Justice Committee. That Matching Campaign raised over $6000 which was shared equally amongst three area food bank organizations. Thank you, Ken. Thank you all who met Ken's challenge. Because of your outstanding generosity, we were able to significantly help our community. Outstanding generosity is still needed. Many continue to experience difficulty in putting food on the table. SJC wants our efforts to carry on.

The Challenge - So here's the idea I put on your table. Not everyone can individually match Ken's outstanding effort. But several individual smaller offers to match can. Add them together, create one whopping (yes, I said whopping!!) offer, and now, "You've got a match, friend!" For example, say six people each offer $50 to match donations. Combined that's a $300 Match Offer. That means $300 of donations is matched by $300 of offers, thereby providing $600 to area food banks! Match offers don't have to be $50. They can be from $5 up, all will be gratefully accepted, and will be combined with others to create one whopper of an offer.

So, Have You Got a Match, Friend?

- Email me the dollar amount of your MATCH OFFER!
- Prefer anonymity? If so, just let me know.
- Offers will be combined to form one larger MATCH amount.
- The Fellowship is then informed and challenged to meet the MATCH offer (say by December 21st ).
- Match Offer checks need not be sent in till equaled in its entirety by donations.
- Match Offer checks sent to the UUFCC office should be annotated "matching effort."

Standing on the side of love, let's continue to help those in need. Your Matchmaker, Herb Levin Chair, Social Justice Committee. engsp1@gmail.com
