UUFCC Weekly Update

September 2, 2021

---

Mary Jane's Musings -

These are real dogs! My nephew and I discovered these little teddy bear dogs a couple of years ago and have traded pictures of them ever since. Both David and I think that our dog is the cutest in the world except for these dogs. They are very tiny which presents a problem for me. I need a dog hefty enough to survive being on the floor with an occasion bump or push. This little thing would have to live on a table or counter and that just doesn't sound reasonable unless he could jump up there himself like the cat does.

Enjoy the unbelievable cuteness of these dogs and may they brighten your week.

Remember Labor Day is Monday. Up North, it always marked the end of summer no matter what the calendar claimed.

May it be so - MJ

How to Watch the Sunday Service on YouTube

Our Sunday Service will be appearing live on YouTube until further notice. Laura Anderson has prepared a wonderful tutorial on getting to the service in the following graphic. You can also click on the following link anytime after 10:21 am on Sunday mornings: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC8Zp-jBchWU0LPiFzmc739Q>

How to get the Sunday service on YouTube in two easy steps:

1. Go to UUFCC.ORG, scroll down and on the right side is a section titled: Watch, Read, Study, Deepen Spirituality. Select the link (click on it) for YouTube which takes you to the UUFCC YouTube channel.

The service starts at 10:30 but there is a few minutes lag time between starting the service and it showing up on YouTube so be patient. IF the broadcast is streaming, it will show up as the first video and you will see it playing. IF the broadcast is not streaming, it will appear as this image does, where our videos all reside after a Sunday service.

IF you have a question about how this works, ask! office@uufcc.org

Communicating with the UUFCC Board

There is an email address to use for communicating with the UUFCC Board. Messages sent to board@uufcc.org will go to the entire Board. This will make it easier for the UUFCC community to communicate directly with the Board and cut down on the confusion that results when emails have to be forwarded.
